

Mowgli Street Food recognised in Best Large Companies to Work in 2023 Best Companies to Work for awards

Mowgli Street Food, founded by Nisha Katona and backed by TriSpan, has been recognised as one of the Best Large Companies to Work for in the UK for the third year in a row and was also recognised as 2nd Best Hospitality & Leisure Company to Work.

The “Best Companies to Work For” award recognises a company’s commitment to its employees, their wellbeing, and high levels of workforce engagement. The award is judged by an anonymous employee survey with the highest-ranking companies entered into the competition.

The Mowgli Team said: “We are so pleased and honoured to be recognised as one of the UK’s Top 25 Best Companies to work for, for a 3rd year running, and ranked 2nd Best Place to Work in Hospitality & Leisure scoring highest in the casual dining sector. This is down to our teams leading the way, and enriching lives in the cities we go to, through hard work and dedication. It is because of these world class ambassadors that Mowgli continues to receive these outstanding accolades. We look forward to celebrating and working towards growing our team in 2024.”
